PRICE, THREE CENTS

TOTAL OF $699,000 FOR CLUB SAVERS

Main Line Banks Will Send Checks Out Beginning
Next Week.

NATIONAL HAS $30,000

Approximately $699,000 will be distributed next week by eight Main Line banks to depositors who are members of Christmas Savings Clubs. Checks will be sent out by most institutions on Thursday, December 1, and arrangements for the mailing of these are now nearing completion.

The total of $699,000 represents only the depositors in the Main Line banks from City Line to Wayne. When the checks of the Berwyn and Paoli banks are added the total should be brought up another $75,000 to $774,000. This sum will be an increase of $164,000 over the amount sent out by the same institutions to Christmas Club savers last year.

The Merion Title and Trust Company with its three offices in separate communities is as usual the largest mailer of club checks. It will send out slips for amounts totaling $260,000. The Bryn Mawr National has the second largest total with $97,000.

The other banks with the amounts they will mail are Bryn Mawr Trust, $60,000; Wayne Title and Trust, $65,000; Main Line National of Wayne, $30,000; Ardmore National, $50,000; Narberth National, $30,000 and Bala-Cynwyd National, $17,000.

The Bala-Cynwyd National will send checks to about 350 club depositors and for an amount that will be an increase of $7000 over last year.

One Main Line bank, the Counties Title and Trust Co., of Ardmore, is not represented in the Christmas Club totals, but this is due to the fact that it began operation too late in the season to inaugurate a club this year.

JAMES W. TISCH

James W. Tisch, of 211 Wayne avenue, died at his home early Sunday morning after a brief illness.

Mr. Tisch was an active member of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church, and a faithful official. He was a member of the Board of Stewards and also a trustee of the church.

He was known to the members of his congregation and to his friends as a Christian gentleman, loyal and devoted to the church and faithful in the performances of every duty. He leaves the memory of a Christ-like life and a sense of real loss to the community in which he lives.

Mr. Tisch is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Etta Walker, with whom he made his home; a son, Samuel Tisch, of Philadelphia; four grandchildren and two brothers and two sisters, of Lancaster, Pa.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon from the funeral parlors of Oliver Baer, Philadelphia.

TO HEAR GLEE CLUB

Fifty fine young men will not only attend the meeting of the Women's Community Club, but plan to give them one of the best programs ever offered its members. They are the glee club of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. under the leadership of Mr. William P. Bentz, who is well known on the Main Line as a leader of the Main Line Choral. This is an afternoon that every member should bring a guest to. Mr. Stewart Anderson, of Narberth, will give a short talk on the advantages of insurance.

Mrs. Albert Frederick will be hostess of the day.

JOHN A. CALDWELL

John A. Caldwell, of 122 Elmwood avenue, died suddenly at his home Thursday evening after a long illness. Mr. Caldwell, one of the borough's oldest residents, had long been identified with local affairs. His sudden death occurred just before "Our Town" went to press, and a sketch of his life is deferred until next week.

Lower Merion-Radnor Battle to First Scoreless Tie in 13 Years

Over-Eagerness Loses Adam
Eleven Three Chances to Score.

RADNOR STRIKES EARLY

Fully 10,000 rabid, cheering, wild-eyed football fans witnessed Lower Merion High School and Radnor battle to a scoreless tie in their twenty-eighth meetings on the Lower Merion field in Ardmore Saturday afternoon. It was the first time in 13 years that both teams quit the field at the end of their annual classic with nothing but goose eggs to their credit on the scoreboard, and but the fourth time since the first contest in 1898 that the tally has been 0-0.

Practically everyone connected with both institutions, in the past as well as at present, seemed to be in attendance, and it was a game well deserving of their enthusiasm. Despite the fact that neither team tallied, there was not a dull minute. It was a thrilling contest, one of the hardest-fought and cleanest-played in the long years of rivalry between Lower Merion and Radnor.

That Lower Merion did not win by at least three touchdowns was due to its own over-eagerness. After the first quarter it consistently outplayed and outgained the visitors from Wayne. Three times did Coach Albert Adam's proteges take the ball past Radnor's 10-yard line and another time they penetrated to the Wayne eleven's 15-yard stripe, but after none of these advances could they score.

Two Runs by Smith Nullified.

Twice on these occasions did Quarterback Ossie Smith break away for brilliant runs that took the ball into within a player's length of the Radnor goal line, and both times the play was called back because Lower Merion was off side. Still a third time, this in the closing minutes of play, did over-eagerness cheat Lower Merion out of a touchdown. Needing but a yard, it seemed no more, for a first down on Radnor's two-yard line, Quarterback Smith called for a forward pass from Parker Lloyd to himself in the fourth down. The pass was high and wild and as it fell to the ground, untouched by a player of either side, the Maroon and White lost its last chance for victory.

This was the second time during the struggle that the Lower Merion quarter gambled with Fate and lost by calling for passes within the shadow of the enemy's goal posts. The first time, however, the play was more orthodox football. It was early in the game, at the beginning of the second quarter, and the Adamites needed five yards this time instead of but one. Besides, two thrusts just previously at the Radnor line had been repelled with no gain. As Lower Merion had no dependable drop kicker, it was logical to attempt a pass for the necessary distance. That it failed this time was tough luck, not bad football.

While Lower Merion cannot escape censure for spoiling its most promising chances by anxiousness, credit must be given to the Radnorites for their tight defensive play on some of these crucial occasions.

ARDMORE BOY SPEAKS ON INTERNATIONAL PEACE

Rotarians Hear of Trip to Scandinavia in Summer

International good will, as promoted by contacts of the younger generation, was brought out Tuesday before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. Fred Klemm, of Ardmore, was the speaker.

Klemm was one of the group of 101 American boys who spent six weeks in Scandinavia last summer. The trip was arranged through the efforts of Dr. Sven Knudsen, a Copenhagen university professor interested in international peace.

The trip was the outgrowth of a correspondence group formed by Dr. Knudsen in co-operation with a newspaperman of New York City. The Rotary clubs of Denmark were asked to entertain the delegates, chosen from all parts of the country.

The boys left on the 23d of July last, spending 13 days on the water en route for Europe. At Copenhagen they were entertained by Rotarians and by the American Club of that city. In addition to seeing the sights and institutions of Denmark, the boys engaged in athletic contests with the youth of their host nation and demonstrated American games.

In their travels about Denmark, Norway and Sweden, young Klemm told the Rotarians, the boys were impressed by the advances shown in Scandinavian aviation. While not a church-going people, he said, the residents live by the bible. The bicycle is the favorite means of transportation.

EXCUSE JURORS

Anna LeNoir, of Cynwyd, was excused from jury duty at Criminal Court in Norristown this week, when she produced a doctor's certificate of ill health. Other Lower Merion and Narberth jurors excused recently are: Benjamin L. Baseler, Maurice DuMarais, Edwin F. Fittz, Emmett Hood, Mary Magee and J. Walter Walleigh.

LOCAL HARDWARE STORE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

E. J. Lyons Sells Business to New Narberth Residents.

The Lyons Hardware Company, 240 Haverford avenue, have been sold to a group of men who have formed the Narberth Hardware Company, Inc., it was announced this week.

The store, Narberth's largest, was purchased from Charles W. Berner when it was located in a smaller shop near the post office. E. A. Keith became manager for E. J. Lyons, the owner, who also owns a store in Ardmore.

In February of this year the store also absorbed the Narberth General Store, started by C. P. Cook at 230 Haverford avenue. The new owners are A. A. Keesler, his nephew, C. C. Keesler and Joseph Potter. The elder Mr. Keesler has already made his home in Narberth, and Mr. Potter plans to locate here shortly with his wife and child.

Both the latter men are from New York State. Mr. Keesler has been in business in Canastota and Mr. Potter in Williams, Mr. C. C. Keesler is located at Moore, Pa.

Mr. Keith announces that he will remain as manager for the present, and the new owners are planning an immediate enlargement of the scope of the business and housefurnishings at prices to meet city competition.

A new business was established in the borough last week, when the first of the Narberth Theater stores opened its doors. The shop is known as the Narberth Theater Barber Shop, at 121 North Narberth avenue.

A sanitary, three-chair shop has been installed, under the ownership of Nicholas Fioia, formerly of Philadelphia. Mr. Fioia has been employed by several of the larger establishments in town, and recently was proprietor of the Flanders Building Shop on Walnut street.

ORCHESTRA PLEASES AS PIANIST STARS

Main Line Musicians Play
Well Under Baton of Vogel.

MEMORIALIZE HAUGHEY

With a technical proficiency born of five years of playing together, the Main Line Orchestra gave the first concert of the current season at the Ardmore Theater Sunday. Anne Prichard, pianist, was the soloist.

A large audience heard the program, made up of a varied group of standard works. Adolph Vogel again wielded the baton—this year before an organization more responsive and better trained than ever before.

The concert opened with Schubert's "Rosamunde" Overture, followed by the first movement of Mozart's C Major Symphony. Both these numbers showed notable confidence and tonal quality.

The third number played was "Dreams," by Wagner, given in memory of the late Rev. Andrew Huston Haughey, of Ardmore. The number is a beautiful one and one with which the orchestra is very familiar, having played it on previous occasions.

The performance was nearly flawless from a technical point of view, with a unity in the stringing, surprising in an amateur body. The orchestra's success with the number, however, was somewhat marred by the fact that the audience, forgetting the reason for its performance, applauded loudly at the close. Mr. Vogel, embarrassed, left the stage quickly without acknowledging the applause.

Miss Prichard's first number was Liszt's "Knapssode Espagnol," with orchestra accompaniment. Both the soloist and the supporting musicians surmounted the technical difficulties of the number. Miss Prichard in particular showed the results of greater maturity in the handling of her instrument since her last years' former appearance with the orchestra.

The young pianist offered three solo numbers: The Valse in G flat and Scherzo in B flat of Chopin and Debussy's frolicsome "La Fille aux Cheveux de Lin." All were well received and Miss Prichard was called forth to receive four ovations.

Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me" brought out some excellent woodwind playing. The Mozart Menuetto was given a fine leading, in which Mr. Vogel achieved a smooth and accurate tempo. The familiar suite from "Carmen" closed the concert.

ATTEND BIG BANQUET

A number of Narberth men were present at the twentieth annual banquet of the Bala-Cynwyd Neighborhood Club at the Penn A. C. Tuesday night. There were 400 men in attendance.

Ralph S. Dunne donated one of the tons of coal offered among the "Booster Prizes." Councilman Robert F. Wood was the winner of a $10 savings account in the Bala-Cynwyd National Bank.

A. E. Wohler, of Narberth, a member of the Neighborhood Club, was also noted from the press table. Other local residents said to be present were mixed with the large crowd. John Dennis Mahoney was the speaker.

CARDS FOR THE JUNIORS

The Junior Community Club will meet next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Nash, Narberth and Price avenues. This meeting is a postponement of that scheduled for November 17, which was dropped because of the heavy storm of that evening.

There will be no business meeting, and the evening will be devoted to cards. Plans are well under way for the Christmas dance on December 21. Tickets were mailed this week.

On December 2, the Woman's Club of Ardmore will have its birthday celebration and luncheon will be served in the club house at 1 o'clock.

Narberth Post Office to Seek Larger Quarters by Next August

Retires from Board

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, of Chestnut avenue, who retired as a member of the Narberth School Board last Friday. She is a former president of the Women's Community Club.

SCHOOL BOARD IN MONTHLY MEETING

Resolution Passed on Retirement of Mrs. E. C. Batchelor.

BUY TWO VICTROLAS

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor retired a member of the Narberth School Board at its November meeting last Friday night. She was the first woman member of the local board, and has distinguished herself during her office for her interest and enthusiasm in the work. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Josie S. Monks.

The board unanimously passed the following resolution on the retirement of Mrs. Batchelor:

"This Board, individually and as representatives of the citizens of Narberth, desires to express its deep appreciation to Mrs. Grace C. Batchelor for the constructive services rendered the schools of this borough during her term of office. Mrs. Batchelor was unusually faithful to the trust placed upon her by the citizens, ever giving abundantly of her devotion and thought to the upbuilding of the high standard of efficiency attained by the schools during her term of office."

"While Mrs. Batchelor severs her official connection with the schools, it is the hope of the board that her intense interest in all that is fine and elevating in the important work of education may continue."

On the same evening on which the board met, the schools were open for the visits of parents. About 160 availed themselves of

SLANE-GOLD

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Gold and Mr. George H. Slane, of Greensburg, Pa., was solemnized last Wednesday morning at a nuptial mass at St. Margaret's Church. The Reverend Father Branton, of Andover, Mass., an old friend of the family, officiated, with Father Brady assisting.

The bride looked charming in a dress of white chiffon velvet, made with a tight bodice and short full skirt. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss May Gold, a sister, wore a blue chiffon velvet gown, and carried pink rosebuds. The bridesmaids, Miss Marguerite Potilla and Miss Veronica Lilly, both of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Juliet Van Dant, a sister of the bride, looked lovely in golden brown chiffon velvet gowns, and carried large bouquets of yellow and golden brown chrysanthemums. Miss Kathleen Toland, a niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, and Master Jimmy Toland was the page.

Mr. William Conley, of New Haven, was the best man, and the ushers were all former classmates of the groom at Notre Dame University.

After the reception which was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gold, at 210 Woodbine avenue, the couple left for an extended wedding trip.

Inspector Asks for Bids to Be Filed During the Month of January.

CHANGE BADLY NEEDED

Visions of a marble edifice in our borough arose this week in the minds of some residents. The Post Office Department is asking bids for a new home for the local office.

The request for proposals, signed by H. B. Mayhew, post office inspector of Philadelphia, indicates that the lease on the present quarters expires next August 20, and that bids for the new quarters must be in by the twenty-third of January, next.

The announcement may mean any one of three things: the office might stay in its present impossible home; it might be moved to a larger store; or really suitable quarters might be provided by the erection of a new building.

The request for bids states that the minimum floor space of the new location must be 1600 to 1800 square feet, although it is understood that the authorities prefer an area of 2000 square feet so as to provide for growth. The present office has only 1200.

In proportion to its volume of business, the Narberth office is believed to be the poorest equipped of any one on the Main Line. Bala-Cynwyd, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Wayne all have quarters prepared especially for their use. Ardmore has a large, new building. The other offices are small ones, in station buildings.

Narberth is a second-class office, and with a large volume of business. Despite this an inspection of the working room reveals a tiny, cramped, poorly lighted place, with make-shift, out-of-date equipment. Observers have marveled at the degree of efficiency attained by the office force for the past years under these conditions.

There is no room to move around or to sort mail properly. Toilet facilities are poor, and there is poor access to the delivery door in the rear, which slows down the dispatch of bags. The quarters are totally inadequate to handle the Christmas rush, and each year the officials must rent or beg another room somewhere for parcel post purposes, resulting in a division of the force, and consequent confusion.

The bids for the new office, which are based on a lease of five or ten years, must provide for quarters including light, heat, water, toilet facilities, safe of vault and all necessary furniture and equipment.

Various individuals and civic bodies in Narberth will be asked to take action in the matter, so as to take advantage of the opportunity to give Narberth the postal facilities it needs. Various locations for a new office have been suggested, but the ideal place, the consensus of opinion seems to be, is the station tract.

With the plans of the railroad station changes so indefinite, it is feared that timely action to remove the office to the station property would be difficult. If the station were removed to the south side, as it may be some time in the future, an ideal location would be available on the north side of the tracks.

With only a month for action, things must move fast, though, to prevent another unsuitable and make-shift site from being chosen.

PARENTS GO TO SCHOOL

More than 200 parents of Narberth school children attended the night session of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, on Friday evening, November 18, which closed the celebration of Education Week. Regular class exercises in a number of school subjects were presented in each of the rooms, and parents showed enthusiastic interest as they observed the groups at work.

The Mother's Council wishes to express its grateful appreciation to both teachers and children for their earnest work and hearty co-operation in this program.

TO CORRECT AN ERROR

Last week, in listing the new officers of the Narberth Tennis Association, we stated that John B. Wine had been chosen president to succeed W. D. R. Evans. This is obviously incorrect, as the outgoing executive is William P. Davies, of Merion avenue, who is retiring after a successful administration, due to lack of time to continue the work.

Mr. Evans retired a year ago, and was succeeded by Mr. Davies. We do not know whether the error was in the report from the club, or whether the editor slipped up in preparing the article. Whatever the cause, "Our Town" should have spotted the mistake in the proofs, and we hasten to make amends to Mr. Davies, who was thus slighted.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at 233 Iona avenue.

Miss Dorothy Speck, of Woodbine avenue, has returned home for the Thanksgiving holidays. She is a student at Hood College, Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stollard, of Hampden avenue, will return tomorrow night from a visit to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Abbott, of Conway avenue, entertained at a masked party on the evening of Saturday, November 12th. The house was most attractively decorated with autumn foliage and softly shaded lights made it doubly appealing. The Pilots were unfortunate again on Tuesday evening, November 22, in not having a full team out in time for the first game. The Meteors showed good form and took four points.

When the United States Government sought a product of the highest carbon content from which to make pure carbon filters for Gas Masks, they not only chose the JEDDO-HIGHLAND COAL, they even commandeered it. (Pure carbon would be the ideal fuel but it cannot be obtained to commercial advantage. (What makes quality in Anthracite Coal? The fixed carbon in it plus a higher standard of preparation. ## Play by Play Description of the Lower Merion-Radnor High Game

FIRST QUARTER

Captain Cook lost the toss and Lower Merion kicked off with the wind. Warren Lentz received the kick and was downed on Radnor's 35-yard line. End Bounds tried run around left side of line, but was held. George Lentz punted to midfield. Lower Merion's ball. Lloyd fumbled a bad pass from Center Scott, but recovered for a 15-yard loss. Mearns kicked to Radnor's 35-yard line. Halfback Lee went through tackle for 20 yards before he was brought down by Smith. Captain Lentz received a pass from Quarterback Wynn for another gain of 20 yards, putting the ball on Lower Merion's 20-yard line. Lee gains 10 yards on off-tackle play. Lentz went off tackle for 3 more yards. The second and third downs brought no gain to the visitors and an attempted forward pass on the fourth down was smeared by a Lower Merion linesman. Lower Merion's ball on its own 7-yard line. An off-tackle thrust yielded no gain and a crack at center with Kohlas carrying the ball gained but 2 yards. Lloyd was then thwarted trying an end run and on the fourth down Lower Merion kicked. Both teams were off-side and the play was called back. On the punt again Captain Lentz signaled for a fair catch, but fumbled the ball, Cook recovering on the 30-yard line. Using the famous magicians' stuff of Penn, Lower Merion gained 5 yards around right end. Mearns then kicked to Radnor's 41-yard line. On a reverse play G. Lentz made 18 yards off-tackle. Ossie Smith broke through the Radnor line on the next play and threw Lentz for an 8-yard loss. A pass was grounded by Lower Merion and another pass on the very next play was intercepted by Right Guard Baker, who was downed on Lower Merion's 45-yard line. Ossie Smith made 30 yards around Radnor's left end. Two short gains through center were followed by an end run which Radnor smeared. Smith then made it a first down on Radnor's 20-yard line. Lloyd made 4 yards, but Lower Merion lost the gain on the next play when it was penalized 5 yards for delaying the game. On the next play Smith slipped, went off Radnor's left end behind nice interference for what looked like a touchdown. The play was called back because of off-sides. The quarter ended with Lower Merion needing less than a yard for first down. First downs: Radnor, 4; Lower Merion, 3.

SECOND QUARTER

On the first play Smith made the necessary distance for another first down, putting the ball on Radnor's 10-yard line. Lloyd was thrown without gain on an end run, but on an other attempt, skirting the left end of the line, made 5 yards. Smith was stopped dead. Lloyd then tried a pass, which was grounded, and the ball went to Radnor. G. Lentz kicked out of bounds on its 38-yard line. Lower Merion's ball. Center yielded a yard and then Smith went off tackle for six more. Lloyd was slow in getting rid of the ball on a forward pass play and was downed for an 8-yard loss. Mearns punted out of bounds on Radnor's 23-yard line. The ball hit Lee, of Radnor, and Lower Merion recovered, but the oval was awarded to the visitors. Mearns smeared a pass. Lentz made 5 yards on an end run. Radnor kicked and a Radnor player touched the ball down on Lower Merion's 45-yard line. A line play was stopped and then Kohlas took the ball over for a first down. Lower Merion made 4 yards. A line buck failed to gain. Smith was thrown for a 4-yard loss. Lower Merion kicked and the ball was downed on Radnor's 28-yard line. On two plays Radnor made 6 yards. G. Lentz carrying the ball made 8 yards for a first down. A magician play was smeared. Radnor hit the line for 4 yards. Lentz kicked and Lloyd who received was downed on Lower Merion's 15-yard line. Time out. Lower Merion made 4 yards through the line, and then a first down on two off-tackle plays, Smith and Kohlas alternating at carrying the ball. Smith sneaked through for 4 yards more as the period ended. During the quarter Elmore was substituted for Lloyd and Coleman went in for Baker. First downs, second quarter: Radnor, 1; Lower Merion, 2. First downs for first half: Radnor, 5; Lower Merion, 5. Score 0-0.

THIRD QUARTER

Captain Cook, of Lower Merion, kicked off to Halfback Wynn, who returned the ball to the 30-yard line. Center Scott followed by Smith hit Captain Smith, attempting an end run and knocked the wind out of him. Time was called to allow the Radnor leader time to recover. Lentz was groggy, but resumed play. Radnor was penalized 15 yards for holding. The kick was almost blocked. Lloyd took it and was downed in his tracks on Lower Merion's 44-yard line. Smith made 4 yards around left end. A line buck netted a yard. Fox, of Radnor, then broke through and tossed Lloyd for a yard loss. Smith made a beautiful tackle of Lentz, who received Mearns' punt on Radnor's 20-yard line. Several tries at the line by Radnor gained nothing, and Lentz punted out of bounds on Lower Merion's 45-yard line. Kohlas replaced Barclay at halfback and got 3 yards through center. Smith added 3 more off tackle. Kohlas again took the ball through center for 10 yards and a first down on Radnor's 39-yard line. Three tries at the line gave Lower Merion another first down, Smith getting away for 8 yards on the last one. Smith went off tackle for 6 more and Lloyd also gained. The linesmen were brought out to measure and Lower Merion was found to have gained another first down on Radnor's 15-yard line. A line buck netted 1 yard and then Smith went through for 4 more. Smith was used again and again, but on the last play failed by inches to make a first down on Radnor's 5-yard line. The decision was made after the linesmen had been called out on the field to measure the distance. G. Lentz punted to Smith, who took the ball on Radnor's 43-yard line and rushed it back to Radnor's 3-yard line before being downed. The play was recalled, however, and Lower Merion penalized for off-side. D'Amora went in for End Deubler. Radnor's kick was received by Smith, who was downed in his tracks on Radnor's 35-yard line. Lloyd made 5 yards, but Kohlas fumbled, Radnor recovering on its 38-yard line. Two tries netted 4 yards. Radnor kicked and Lower Merion received on its 21-yard line. Lower Merion fumbled on the first play, but Smith recovered. Mearns kicked, Radnor fumbles, Purse recovering for Lower Merion on Radnor's 46-yard line as the quarter ended. First downs: Radnor, 0; Lower Merion, 3.

FOURTH QUARTER

A pass, Lloyd to Smith, netted 5 yards. Lloyd went around left end for 6 more and a first down. Lloyd again around right end for 5 yards. Smith ran out of bounds, but Kohlas went through the line for a first down. Lloyd's pass was grounded. Smith went off tackle for 6 yards. Smith got another yard and then Lloyd was smeared on an end run. Radnor got the ball on its own 20-yard line. Radnor lost 2 yards; made 4 and then Lentz kicked out of bounds on Lower Merion's 46-yard line. Curley, of Radnor, smeared a Lower Merion pass. A delay pass was grounded and Lower Merion was penalized 5 yards for two successive unsuccessful passes. Smith went around left end for 15 yards. Smith again got through and made it a first down near Radnor's 45-yard line. Lloyd passed to D'Amora for 8 yards. Kohlas then went through for a first down. A lateral pass gained nothing, but Kohlas went off tackle for 5 yards on the next play. Kavanaugh was sent in at center for Curley, of Radnor. Mearns faked a kick and then threw a beautiful pass to Lloyd for a 20-yard gain. Smith gained 6 yards off tackle, but evidently twisted his ankle on the play for he came up limping. Lloyd gained a yard and on the next play went around left end for another small gain. With but a yard to go, Lloyd tried another pass to Smith. It was high and wild and fell to the ground before any player could touch it. Radnor got the ball. Murphy was sent in for Purse, of Lower Merion. Lentz fooled Lower Merion, which was expecting a kick, and ran the ball back 10 yards from punt formation. Smith's ankle was getting steadily worse and worse and after time had been taken out he was withdrawn and Vance put in his place. W. Lentz then added 15 yards around end. Fullback Lentz went out for a pass and the ball was grounded by Vance just as Lentz reached for it. Radnor kicked and Lloyd received the punt on his own 45-yard line. Kohlas got a yard. Lloyd made 4 more. Lloyd was dropped for a 2-yard loss and Mearns kicked. Radnor received on its 30-yard line, made 5 yards and then 4 as the whistle blew ending the game.

First downs in fourth quarter: Radnor, 2; Lower Merion, 5. First downs in second half: Radnor, 2; Lower Merion, 8. Score 0-0.

Employees Entertain

Last Monday evening the Employees' Association of the Merion Title and Trust Company entertained their friends and relatives at the Brookline Square Club with a musical entertainment and dance. Over 650 guests and employees were present. The ballroom was decorated as well as the stage, which added to the programme.

The U. G. I. Music Makers furnished the entertainment, which was in charge of Mr. Shinn as director and Mr. C. L. McAllister, manager, and they displayed excellent talent with songs, piano solos, dances and up-to-date popular music. Forty employees of the U. G. I. comprised this company of melody broadcasters, each dressed in Spanish minstrel costume. Old time songs were sung by the entire audience, reviving old memories. Alexander's Collegians furnished music for the dancing which followed. The buffet was open for those desiring refreshments and much credit must be given the committee and the bank for furnishing to so many such a splendid variety of enjoyable entertainment.

L. M.-RADNOR GAME

The Wayne eleven's line was split wide open time and again in mid-field, but when it was backed up to its own goal line it held like a stone wall. This was particularly true in the third quarter, when Coach Jules Prevost's charges had been pushed to their 15-yard line. Three line bucks availed but five yards, and on the fourth attempt Lower Merion was stopped by inches from making the remaining distance necessary for a first down on Radnor's five-yard line.

The weatherman provided a traditional November football setting for the spectacle. The temperature was low, and a brisk wind which whipped over the field made it difficult for the spectators to keep warm. A snow flurry in the last period completed the picture.

The crowd spent much of its time shivering, but the Lower Merion rooters did most of their quivering right at the beginning of the game, when Radnor threatened the Lower Merion goal for the first and last time during the contest.

The game had hardly gotten under way before the visitors were knocking at Lower Merion's door demanding a touchdown. Flashing a brilliant offensive, the Radnor eleven took the ball on four successive plays to the Lower Merion seven-yard line. Pushed back to this point, however, Adam's proteges came out of their stage fright, held and took the oval on downs.

Radnor began its march following a bad pass from Center Cook to Lloyd, which was fumbled and recovered, but cost Lower Merion a 15-yard loss. This mishap, at the very outset of the struggle, upset the Ardmore eleven. After Mearns had kicked to the Radnor 5-yard line Lower Merion seemed unable to solve the Wayne team's plays. Radnor took prompt advantage.

Halfback Lee knifed off 20 yards through tackle before he was brought down by Smith. Captain George Lentz added another 20 yards, hooked a forward pass from Quarterback W. W. Lee right through tackle and Radnor's halfback added another three or four yards. This brought the ball to Lower Merion's seven-yard line.

The L. M. stands were pleading frantically with the team to "hold that line," and hold they did. Two more downs brought the Radnor host no nearer to touchdown territory, and an attempted forward pass on the fourth yard line was intercepted by the Lower Merion backfield. The ball went to the Maroon and White, which soon kicked to the field. Not again during the afternoon did Radnor threaten.

Lower Merion Starts Out.

Lower Merion, its confidence recovered, started some threatening of its own. Its first chance came toward the end of the first quarter, when Guard Baker intercepted a Radnor pass on Radnor's 45-yard line. Smith then took the ball on his own 30-yard line, and three plays later made another first down. Lloyd then made four yards, but Lower Merion lost the ball when it was slow in getting going and was given a five-yard penalty for delaying the game. On the next play Smith got away for a brilliant run around Radnor's left end and was but a few inches from the play was called back, however, because both teams had been off sides. On this play a Radnor lineman hit the Lower Merion player who was running with the ball, and the ball was passed and he opponent in the Lower Merion line seeing him come on went in to meet him. "Kewie" before he was tackled.

As the quarter ended and the teams exchanged goals, Lower Merion had but a yard to go to make it first down. Radnor's 10-yard line. This distance Smith made on the first play. Quarterback Parker Lloyd made five yards on one of the next four plays, but this was the only yardage that the Lower Merion could negotiate against the tightened Radnor defensive line. The game looked like a draw, and thus Lower Merion lost two chances to score, all in the first 20 minutes of play.

The Maroon and White's next big opportunity to tally came in the third quarter, when it took the ball on its own 45-yard line and started cracking the Radnor line for rain after rain. Ossie Smith and Red Kohlas featured the drive which finally brought the oval to the visitors' 15-yard line. But here Radnor's tightened attack, and Lower Merion failed by inches to make a first down on the Wayne eleven's five-yard line.

When Captain Lentz kicked the ball out of the zone, Lower Merion had another opportunity for Quarterback Smith to start the drive on his own 30-yard line. He followed this by making another first down through the line. A forward from Lloyd to D'Amore netted another 10 yards, and a second pass from Maroon's Lloyd more and Smith added another six or eight yards. Two plays later, however, when two yards and with but two yards more to go, the very most Smith called for and got at the very most Smith called for and got.

Warren Lentz then added another 15 yards, and the pass was high and wide. Smith whose ankle had been twisted so that he was unable to move over once of energy to catch the ball and tossed high for it, but his effort was many inches short. The forward was grounded, the ball went to Radnor on downs and Lower Merion lost its last chance to celebrate victory over Radnor.

Still unwilling to concede a tie, Coach Adam sent in Murphy, a center originally and the tallest man on the Maroon and White squad. He was expected to do their best to help block the kick. Quarterback Wynn, however, fooled the entire Lower Merion team as he let his coaching staff instead of calling for a punt out of the danger zone. He drove back 10 yards from kick formation. Brother Warren Lentz then added another 15 yards, and the pass was high and wide. Smith whose ankle had been twisted so that he was unable to move over once of energy to catch the ball and tossed high for it, but his effort was many inches short. The forward was grounded, the ball went to Radnor on downs and Lower Merion lost its last chance to celebrate victory over Radnor.

At the Theater

George O'Brien, when he came East to play "John Breen, Alias 'Fighting Lipvitch,'" in the Allan Dwan production, "East Side, West Side," for Fox films, spent much time gathering color for his role in the Ghetto district of New York, where part of the story is laid.

At the second-hand clothing emporium where he stopped to buy some of his wardrobe he encountered a youth who recognized him immediately. "Your name O'Brien?" asked the boy. "Yes," said George. "What's yours?" "Lipvitch," said the boy. George figured that a coincidence like that was a pretty good break right at the start. At the next place he visited he was not recognized, so he told the salesman he worked on a barge, and wanted to buy a blue serge suit for Sunday.

The right one was finally chosen and price negotiations completed. Then he said: "I'll take another just like it." It was necessary to duplicate because one suit was to be damaged in a street brawl which occurred in the script. The man looked at him aghast. He couldn't comprehend why anyone should want two suits just alike, and said so, emphatically. "Here," he urged, "is the suit you want. No one wants two suits just alike. Take a nice gray one." "East Side, West Side" will amuse Narberthites at the local theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Who was it that furnished the comedy relief during the war when the Allies were fighting in the depths of despair and the toil and horror of war had brought tense nerves to the breaking point? Who was it that enabled the war workers keyed up to the last pitch to relax and refresh themselves?

in laughter over the lighter side of the war? Who was its silver lining?

It was Old Bill Busby, the universally beloved cartoon character created by Bruce Bairnsfather, the English cartoonist, and it is this eccentrically comic old British Tommy which Syd Chaplin brings to the screen in Warner Bros.' production of "The Better 'Ole," which comes to the Narberth Theater next week.

In "The Better 'Ole," Old Bill, gruff, terse, stolid, with walrus moustache, a shabby pipe, baggy uniform, woolen muffler, fingerless yarn mitts, Flanders mud, a heart of gold and a delicious sense of humor, is discovered with his regiment. Whether under fire in the trenches or resting in a French village behind the lines, he is the same methodical, nonchalant old trooper, fatalistic and hilariously resourceful.

The $500 appropriation of the School Board, while intended for use in the current year, appears in the unexpended balance of last year. The circulation figures show a gain of nearly 6000 over that of the previous year, and the librarian in her report attributed this unusual increase to the new building with its larger quarters and more adequate facilities.

The Rev. Robert E. Keighton, pastor of the Baptist Church, was elected a trustee for two years to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Joseph A. Hongler. Mr. Keighton's interest in the library, in educational subjects, and in all civic affairs caused his election to be greeted with satisfaction. Officers of the Board of Trustees elected for the ensuing year are: President, Miss Anna MacKeag; vice president, Mr. E. A. Muschamp; secretary, Mrs. E. C. Drew; treasurer, Mrs. Grace Muschamp; librarian, Mrs. Robert F. Wood.

2476 GARMENTS COLLECTED BY NEEDLEWORK GUILD

Annual Meeting Shows Increase in Work of Members

The annual collection of garments for the twenty-third yearly meeting of the Needlework Guild netted the local branch 2476, which was an increase of 752 over last year. The executive board and directors were very much pleased with the results obtained and feel more women are becoming interested in the work. At the luncheon held at noon for the board and directors Miss R. K. Bender, national secretary, was the speaker and brought a message of great worth to the women. She said an increase does not always mean money; what the Guild needs is members. The leisure hour sewing is the spirit of Needlework Guild as it is from these hours spent together one gains the spirit of closer contact and friendliness and the desire to do something for someone else.

The afternoon meeting was opened with a talk by Rev. John Van Ness, who spoke of the road on which we are all traveling and the things which are blocking it up, such as the sale of narcotics, obscene literature and people who will not heed those who need help.

Magistrate Fahnestock, the speaker of the afternoon, received a very fine ovation. She told of her work in the Courts of Philadelphia, where she is trying to help the unfortunate ones and just how others are trying to block her work. She spoke of birth control as something which must be taken seriously if we are to reach the goal of better childhood in America. All women in some way should help toward the civic righteousness of the town or city in which they live; they owe this to their country. After the talk Mrs. Fahnestock met many of the women personally. The next meeting of the Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. John A. Caldwell, 122 Elmwood avenue, Wednesday, December 14. This will be an all-day sewing meeting starting at 10 A. M. All women are urged to come out for either the day or half day.

SUPPER GOOD—PLAN BAZAAR

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church wishes to extend its thanks to the members of the church and its friends for the wonderful support given them at the sour krout supper held last Thursday night, for in spite of the bad weather the receipts were as anticipated.

On December 2 and 3 it will hold a bazaar at 222 Haverford avenue. The Canvassing Committee has had wonderful success in gathering together articles to be sold. There will be an abundance of aprons, fancy work, household linens, delicatessens, groceries and homemade candies. The home bake booth will be in operation on Saturday, December 3, with orders taken on Friday, December 2. The doors will be open to the public at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

As this is the first time the ladies have held a bazaar they are very anxious to make of it a large success, and urge the co-operation of all their friends. The prices will be well within the means of everyone, as their aim will be to keep their prices down.

MRS. BATCHELOR RETIRES

the opportunity to see the schools in action. Grades five to eight were in session to demonstrate the teaching methods in use.

In order to permit parents to "sit in" on a school board meeting the session was called to order at 7 P. M. instead of the usual hour of 8. Little but routine business was transacted.

Superintendent George H. Wilson's report showed that the schools were running smoothly. He had particularly good reports from Lower Merion, where the Narberth High School students are doing well in studies and student activities.

The school physician has been examining the pupils recently and the results of the examinations were reported to the board. In general all children are in excellent physical shape, but one recurrent defect was noted—a number of pupils report each day complaining of indigestion, which keeps the school nurse busy.

This condition, the school authorities believe, is due to the fact that many of the children are not given adequate breakfasts, and that they rush to school with quickly-eaten meals partly digested. The matter was referred to the Mothers' Council with the request that parents be asked to see that the youngsters are better fed, and started to school earlier.

The board authorized the purchase of two Orthophonic Victrolas for the schools. One will be placed in the kindergarten room and the other in the grade school building. The kindergarten, which has been highly successful in this, its first year, has over 40 pupils, and is operating in two sessions daily.
